The Kona Historical Society offers a beautiful pasture setting for any special event. Our Kalukalu site is located at a cool elevation (1500 feet) and includes an ocean view, native plant forest, majestic monkeypod and magnolia trees, an authentic Portuguese stone oven, stone ruins, and the historic H.N. Greenwell Store that dates from 1870. The pastures and old trees, the stone structures, and the view of the ocean beyond, provide many beautiful venues for ceremonies and photographs.

Your guests will enjoy the tranquility of an authentic ranch setting, rural in nature, yet conveniently located.

Arrangements may be made with us for a special Portuguese stone oven bread baking, or for special tours inside the historic H.N. Greenwell Store.

Please call our offices at 808-323-3222 for more information or to book the site.

The Kona Historical Society's Kalukalu site is located on Mamalahoa Highway (Highway 11) in Kealahou, approximately 14 miles south of the village of Kailua Kona.
